The addition to the Library was completed as a State Project about Feb. 9 and will be when shelving is installed a much needed improvement.

While the work was being done, it was necessary to shift many of the books from one place to another and I had a few hours help from Tommy Neary, the janitor.
When the work was completed it was necessary because of the plaster and dust to clean shift and re arrange the books. Mr. Hamilton tried to arrange with Scranton to send a a helper but as that would have to be another future project it was thought best to hire some one at once to help. I engaged Fr. Fox for four days at $2.00 per day under Mr. Hiller's instruction and the books are now in the best order possible until new shelving is installed.

It was also necessary to clean the room as well as possible each week during the
